Below is analysis that was included in the staff report on November 16, 2021 (Item No. 13) pertaining to the Draft EE 2.0 Plan: First Refinement:

Refinements to the Draft EE 2.0 Plan: First Refinement smoothed out the southern boundaries of the proposed Supervisorial Districts 2 and 4 to follow major roadways and extends the proposed boundary for Districts 3 and 4 to the west of the Norman Y. Mineta San José International Airport. The Draft EE 2.0 Plan: First Refinement has a total plan deviation of 1.2%. The two districts with the greatest deviation are District 1 (0.90%) and District 5 (-0.31%). Distinguishing characteristics of the Draft EE 2.0 Plan: First Refinement include:

- Shifted the neighborhoods south of CA 85 from Dellwood Avenue to Santa Teresa Boulevard from proposed Supervisorial District 4 to proposed Supervisorial District 1
- Extends the proposed Supervisorial District 3 boundary to the edge of the City of San José by the Norman Y. Mineta San José International Airport
- Extends proposed Supervisorial District 4 to begin at the City of Santa Clara at the Norman Y. Mineta San José International Airport
- Smooths out the southern borders of proposed Supervisorial Districts 2 and 4

- Evergreen neighborhood in the City of San José all in proposed Supervisorial District 1
- City of Monte Sereno and Town of Los Gatos in proposed Supervisorial District 1
 - Western cities of the county split into three Supervisorial Districts
 - District 1: City of Monte Sereno and Town of Los Gatos
 - District 3: City of Sunnyvale
 - District 5: City of Cupertino, City of Palo Alto, City of Mountain View, and City of Saratoga
