DATE: October 24, 2016

TIME: 2:00 - 4:00PM

PLACE: Board of Supervisors' Chambers

Purpose: The Public Forum on Living Wage Policy for Community-Based Nonprofit Contractors will include an overview of the County's Living Wage Ordinance, discussion of the development of a living wage policy for non-profits, and a proposed timeline to consider whether and how the Living Wage Policy could apply to community-based nonprofit contractors, as well as a review of the legal, policy, and economic considerations relating to application of the Policy to these nonprofit contractors. Information received at the forum will be used by the Administration to develop a draft Living Wage Policy for Community-Based Nonprofit contractors to be presented at a subsequent forum. Once this process has concluded, the Administration will present a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors for its consideration.

Agenda:

- I. Welcome Remarks (Supervisor Chavez) (2:00pm – 2:05pm)
- II. Presentation by Administration (Miguel Márquez/OCCM Staff) (2:05pm – 2:20pm)
- III. Invitation to Comment on Living Wage for Nonprofit Contractors (Supervisor Chavez) (2:20pm – 2:25pm)
- IV. Introduction and Comments from SVCN, BHCA, and Working Partnerships USA (2:25 – 2:40pm)
- V. Comments from Stakeholders (2 minutes each) (2:40 pm – 3:50pm)
- VI. Next Steps and Closing Remarks (Supervisor Chavez & Administration) (3:50 – 4:00pm)

Host: Santa Clara County District Two Supervisor Cindy Chavez
